Written and directed by Alice Wu, Saving Face (2004) is about Chinese-American lesbian and her traditionalist mother who are reluctant to go public with secret loves that clash against cultural expectations, a romantic comedy about right, wrong and everything in between. (91 minutes)

Love thy neighbor . . . just don't get caught! Written and directed by Carlos Portugal, East Side Story (2006) is a sometimes sexy and romantic story of the challenges of a young, closeted gay man's efforts to find love in east Los Angeles. (88 minutes)

This is a FREE event and open to the entire community!
